XÀKÍJÍ UWA XÀKÚJÀÀ YĪNÁ (HEAD CHIEF & MINOR CHIEFS)

JULY 2026 NEWSLETTER

Message from Xàkújàà Jeanne Crowchild

Dzínisi gújā / Good day Tsuut'ina Citizens,

On behalf of Xàkíjī uwa Xàkújàà Yīná, I am honoured to share this July message with Tsuut'ina citizens and families. As Xàkújāghá yīná, our commitment to keeping our citizens informed, connected, and engaged in the work taking place across Tsuut'ina Nation. This newsletter is one way we will continue sharing updates, recognizing achievements, and inviting you to take part in important Nation events and discussions.

Siyisgaas/Thank you to all the citizens who have taken the time to share their voices through the Xakiji uwa Xàkújàà yīná Citizen Input Questionnaire and the Communications Questionnaire. Your input is valued. The perspectives shared help guide how we communicate and how we move forward together as a Nation. The results will be shared in future communications, and we look forward to continuing these conversations in a good way.

Recognizing Executive Directors' Academic Achievements

This month, we raise our hands to acknowledge Executive Directors who were recognized during Treaty Day for their academic achievements, professional development, and continued commitment to lifelong learning. We congratulate Tanis Onespot, Jordan Big Plume, Monica Onespot, Janelle Crane-Starlight, and Angela Heavenfire for their dedication, perseverance, and leadership. Their continued learning reflects a shared commitment to strengthening service, supporting better decision-making, and creating pathways for future generations of Tsuut'ina Nation.

Summer Time ...

Tsuut'ina has a deep connection with other Nations and their peoples, as it is a time for our peoples to celebrate our way of life as passed on by our ancestors. To travel to other Nations and participate in Ceremonies, Pow wows, Rodeos, Handgames, Baseball, Golf or just visit our families.

Calgary Stampede and Tsuut'ina Presence

Since the inception of the Stampede, the Tsuut'ina peoples have participated in their events, whether it is the rodeo, chuckwagons, elbow camp, Pow Wow or just walking through the midway. Whatever way you participate in the event, keep safe, watch over each other and enjoy yourselves.

Tsuut'ina Nation's Annual Celebrations – July 22 to 26

Later this month, the Tsuut'ina people will host our Annual Celebrations; a time where our families, friends and visitors can participate in our Pow Wow, golf tournament, rodeo and hand games. It is a time for showcasing our pride in being hospitable, gracious and giving hosts.

It is also an opportunity for our people to showcase their beautiful works of art, support the event through their work and participation or be hosts to family, friends and visitors.

Together, we can make our Annual Celebrations a successful one to be proud of!

We are of “one mind,” one Nation.

Enjoy the Summer and Stay Safe

As we move through the summer months, we encourage everyone to enjoy time with family, friends, and loved ones. Please take care while travelling, attending events, and spending time outdoors. Let us continue to look after one another, support our Elders and youth, and carry ourselves with kindness, respect, and pride wherever we gather.

On behalf of Xàkújághá yíná, I wish everyone a safe, joyful, and meaningful summer. We look forward to seeing citizens and families at upcoming Nation events and celebrations.

Siyísgáàs / Thank you,

Xàkújàà Jeanne Crowchild
