Dādánast'ádā,

To the Chiefs of the Blackfoot Confederacy — Kainai, Piikani, and Siksika

Sīyísǵààs (Thank you) for your thoughtful words and congratulations.

On behalf of the Tsuut'ina Nation Xàkújààs and our People, we extend our deepest appreciation and gratitude for your message and for the enduring kinship between our Nations. Your recognition of our recent election and your commitment to unity, reflect our shared strengths as neighbors and Treaty partners.

We honor the leadership of the Blackfoot Confederacy and value the continued cooperation that has long guided our Nations. Together, we share a legacy of unity and strength through collaboration and our common vision for the well-being of our Nations. We look forward to working with the Blackfoot Confederacy on our shared responsibility to uphold and defend our Treaty and inherent rights.

We warmly invite you to join us for the Xàkújághá yíná Annual Christmas Feast & Pow Wow on December 29, 2025.

May the path ahead bring continued prosperity, unity, and good relations.

Tsuut'ina Nation
