Meet Geordie MacPherson
New Director of Human Resources

Tsúut'ina Nation is pleased to welcome Geordie MacPherson as our new Senior Human Resources Director, effective October 15th, 2025.

Geordie joins the Nation with over 20 years of experience in Human Resources leadership, organizational development, and Indigenous partnership work. A Certified Executive Coach (CEC) and Chartered Professional in Human Resources (CPHR), he is recognized for building respectful, inclusive, and high performing workplaces grounded in culture, collaboration, and community.

A non-status descendant of the Mohawks of Kanesatake (Kanehsatà:ke), Geordie brings a deep respect for Indigenous governance, knowledge systems, and the unique strengths of each Nation. Through his work with Wakiya Solutions, he has had the honour of working alongside and mentoring members from Nations such as Witchekan, Lake First Nation, Three Fires (Economic Development), Cote First Nation, and Tataskweyak Cree Nation, among others. His experience spans both corporate and Nation settings, including serving as Vice President, People & Experience for Tundra Process Solutions, and his current role as Chair of the Board of Directors for CPHR Alberta, representing HR professionals across Alberta, Northwest Territories, and Nunavut.

In joining Tsúut'ina Nation, Geordie shared: "It is an honour to be welcomed into this community and to contribute to the values, traditions, and strength of the Tsúut'ina people. I look forward to walking along side our leadership and staff as we continue to build a respectful, equitable, and thriving Nation together."

Please join us in welcoming Geordie MacPherson to Tsúut'ina Nation. Together, we will continue to move forward in the spirit of respect, collaboration, and shared growth.
