

Call-Out for Indigenous Knowledge Keepers & Cultural Instructors

Tsuut'ina Child and Family Services Cultural Program is seeking Indigenous Knowledge Keepers, Elders, Cultural Teachers, and Instructors to support our land-based and community cultural programming.

We are building strong cultural foundations for children in care, youth, families, men, and women through connection to land, identity, and traditional ways of life.

We are currently seeking individuals with knowledge and experience in:

Traditional & Land-Based Teachings

- Traditional ways of life
- Plant knowledge and traditional medicines
- Hunting, trapping, and harvesting practices
- Hide tanning
- Dry meat preparing
- Seasonal survival skills
- Traditional storytelling
- Language and cultural protocols
- Traditional parenting and family teachings

Pow-wow & Cultural Arts Instructors

- Pow-wow dance instructors (Male & Female categories)
- Singing instructors
- Women's backup singing instructors
- Drum teachings (as appropriate and community-guided)

We value:

- Lived experience and strong cultural foundation
- Respect for cultural protocols and community guidance
- Patience and ability to work with children and families
- A good heart and commitment to strengthening our Nation

Honorariums and/or contracts will be provided.

Please note:

All individuals working directly with children and youth will be required to provide a current Vulnerable Sector Check in accordance with CFS policy.

If you are interested in sharing your knowledge, or would like to recommend someone, please contact:

Quentin Pipestem
Cultural Coordinator
Tsuut'ina Child and Family Services
403 370-8328
Quentin.pipestem@dfna.alberta.ca

Together, we continue strengthening our children, families, and Nation through culture.