

What does it mean to Tsúūt'ínà?

To honour:

- Our ancestors that entered into Treaty
- Our Customs & Traditions
- The Land and resources of our Nation
- The lifelong principles of the Tsuut'ina People
- The future generations to come

External relationships must be:

- Founded on Treaty
- Generational to allow future generations to benefit
- Holistic to ensure all lifelong principles are enacted for the community to Continue with our way of life, to learn and protect our collective right for future generations.

Treaty Relationship

"Great Father! Take pity on me with regard to my Country; with regard to the mountains, the hills, the valleys; with regard to the prairies, the forests and the waters, with regard to all animals that inhabit them and do not take them from my self or my children forever!"

- Crowfoot, Spokesperson for all Treaty 7 Chiefs at the closing of the treaty 7 signing

